LOGLINE

When benevolent aliens arrive to save humanity from self-destruction, a centuries-old hybrid human becomes Earth's ambassador through an unprecedented migration of humanity to the stars, leading to both utopian possibilities and dangerous resistance.

THE SERIES

From 1901 to 2055, MAYORGA follows John Foster's extraordinary life as he bridges Earth's past and humanity's future through the greatest migration in human history, when the advanced Zi civilization offers humanity a deal: leave Earth so it can heal.

The series combines intimate family drama with epic science-fiction scale, offering an optimistic vision of humanity's future while exploring environmental responsibility, cultural preservation and the transformation of society.

Audience

Adults 25 to 54, science fiction and premium drama viewers; family co-viewing (12+).
